He introduced John Scott, of Skal International Toronto, as the new SICAN President. John read current SICAN President Joan Way's message to the joint session of the two Toronto Clubs and gave the opening toast. John thanked Joseph Ebner and his excellent staff at the Delta Chelsea for being gracious and expert hosts of this very much liked and well-attended meeting.

Thom Vincent took the podium requesting member's participation in the Skal survey, soliciting member's opinion on number of SKAL issues and changes proposed by the Skal Task Force. Kim Clarke, President of the Toronto Club, announced that this summer's golf tournament raised over $1,600 for the purchase of medical equipment for Sick Kids Hospital in Toronto. President Kim announced Skal Toronto Christmas dinner on December the 9th, to be held at the elegant Sutton Place Hotel. 50/50 winners were from the Toronto Club: Mark Linton won his first ever 50/50, Scott Barker and one Toronto North member collected the other 2 prizes. There were 3 additional prizes of select bottles of wine all won by the lucky Toronto North members.
