SKAL TORONTO SUPPORTS DAILY BREAD FOODBANK

(TORONTO, ON) - Building on its long-standing commitment to fighting hunger in our communities, Skal Toronto donated three thousand dollars raised from the annual 2015 Golf Tournament to the Daily Bread Food Bank, a distribution hub that provides food and support to almost 200 food programs across Toronto and is the largest provider of food relief in the GTA.

More than 125 golfers, volunteers and guests came together at the Royal Woodbine Golf Course in Etobicoke on Monday August 10th to show their support. Last year, Daily Bread distributed almost 9 million pounds of food to member agencies, and provided food hampers for over 700,000 visits.

Although the golf game ended early due to weather conditions, spirits remained high as participants were moved indoors for activities and a prize-filled dinner event. The evening included a variety of raffles, contests and a live auction, all with awards from the event's numerous sponsors.

Sponsors for this year's event include Air Canada, Deloitte, Sunwing, Porter Airlines, WestJet, Destination Quebec, GTAA/Pearson Airport, VoX International, Plaza Premium Lounges, TIC insurance, Big Bark, CIE Tours, Collette, Occidental Hotels & Resorts, Ensemble, ENVOY, Insight Vacations, Rail Europe, Visit Britain, RBC Investments, TICO, TPI, Trafalgar, Transat Tours, Trip Central, Uniglobe Travel, Visit Myrtle Beach, ACTA, Baxter Travel Media, Crystal Cruises, My Passion Media, The Butler Did It, PAX media, the official photographers, Soft Voyage, Cornerstone Insurance Brokers, Ritz Carlton Hotel Montreal and AISol Hotels.

"We had a great turnout," said Brent Bowes, president of SKAL International Toronto. "Skal Toronto was able to raise three thousand dollars in support of the Toronto Daily Food Bank, which provides long-term solutions to battle hunger and programs to support low income families".
